Meetings This Week

Today after worship, the Lutheran Women Mission Society will be meeting to discuss how the anniversary went at the end of June, the upcoming PNW Women's Mission Rally, and the Bazaar's that we will set up a booth at in November and December. We are getting into the homestretch for the Rally; we hope to see you there. On Tuesday, the Elder's will be meeting followed by the church council. All meeting this month will prepare us for next month's September Voter's Assembly.

Winkel Tomorrow

Tomorrow, the pastors from southern Oregon will be meeting in Roseburg for their monthly meeting. During this meeting, the pastors discuss things from Synod, dive into papers that range in doctrine and practice and review sermons. The Synod encourages its pastors to engage in brotherly fellowship. We keep our pastors in our prayers as they travel and hold their meeting.

Pastor In Need

As we live miles away from many of our churches, the devil would like to tempt us to think that we are all on our own. How gracious our God is that He has blessed us with a church family that can come together even though we are miles away. As we have hosted events at our church this year, reminding us that we have brothers and sisters in fellowship across the country and over the world, the synod is asking for our assistance with one of our own. In your mail box there is a letter detailing the condition of Pastor Samuel Johnson and his current health struggles. If there is any way you would like to help, the letter will give you the information how you can go about providing some assistance to him and his family during this time of hardship.

Keeping Pastor Smith in Your Prayers

Pastor Smith, a previous pastor here at Christ Lutheran Church, continues to battle cancer. While treatment is helping with the cancer, it has had its side effects which have caused him to have to go to the hospital. Please keep him and his family in your prayers, that he may be strengthened to get home, continue to be there for his family and congregation, and that in time, his cancer might be taken completely away.

Community Donations

It has been comforting to see how our community has banded together during the different kinds of testing whether it be from funding or natural disasters. Just as we took donations to help the food bank, if you would like to help the community with the ongoing wildfire, please go to MyBasin.com. There are many different ways to help if you feel inclined. May the Lord continue to be with our community and with the firefighters during this time of tribulation!
