Bible Class Begins!

Bible Class has begun! We are studying The Book of the Apocalypse, Revelation. When we hear this book mentioned, we may think of its imagery and oracles and it is believed that this book is hard to understand. What we find in this book is that it is not so scary at all. Please join us in our studies.

Ladies Meeting for re-cap and the Holly-Daze Bazaar

With the Holly-Daze Bazaar fast approaching on November 6th, we will have a Lutheran Women's Mission Society meeting after worship. We will re-cap the Rally and go over the information for the first Bazaar at the hospital. There will be one more meeting next month before the second Bazaar and then we will take some months off to rest from our labors.

The Lutheran Reformation

On Sunday, the 25th, we will be celebrating the Lutheran Reformation. The official date is celebrated on the 31st of October, which is the day Martin Luther nailed the 95 theses on the church doors of Wittenburg. Our history is found here as we faithfully dedicate ourselves to the preaching of the Word in its truth and purity, rightly administering the sacraments, and ever holding on to the teaching, saved by faith alone. We will be celebrating this day with the Lutheran Chorale Service (The Singing Service). You can find the 95 theses on a bulletin board in the fellowship hall. We look forward to seeing you on this great day as we celebrate with thanks and praise how God continues to bless His church with His ever-faithful Word!

Area Reformation Service

The area Reformation Service will be held at Faith Lutheran Church in Medford, Oregon. President Emeritus Glenn Obenberger will be the guest preacher. The service will take place on October 31st, at 12 PM, which is on Reformation. It will be followed by a lunch. You can find Faith at:

1773 S Columbus Ave.

Medford, OR 97501
